

Support Jeffco Kids

2017 Endorsements

SJK is pleased to announce our endorsements for the 2017 School Board election

Jefferson County Public Schools Board of Education:

District 1 – Incumbent C. Brad Rupert

<http://bradforjeffcokids.com>

With two decades of community service, Brad has been involved with Habitat for Humanity, the Arvada Chamber of Commerce, the Arvada Community Food Bank, and the Kiwanis Club of Arvada-Jefferson. His leadership and commitment to his community earned him the Arvada Man of the Year Award in 2011. His own children graduated from Ralston Valley H.S., and his s tep-grandchildren attend Arvada High School and North Arvada Middle School.

District 2 – Incumbent Susan Harmon

<http://susanforjeffcokids.com>

Susan is an attorney and independent business woman, and has two children in Jeffco schools. She has served on her children's schools' PTA board for more than six years, served as chair on the elementary school accountability committee and volunteers at her local elementary and middle school. Susan has also served on the Special Education Advisory Committee and the Calendar Committee at the district level.

District 5 – Incumbent Ron Mitchell

<http://ronforjeffcokids.com>

Ron worked in Jefferson County Schools for forty years, served as principal of Alameda High School for ten years and served eight years as the principal of Columbine, and worked in the central office for two years.

Learn more at www.supportjeffcokids.org

